

A Call for Papers

The 2025 Annual Conference of the Alliance for Texas History

When: May 15-17, 2025 | Where: Texas State University, San Marcos

The Alliance for Texas History will hold its inaugural Annual Conference on May 15-17, 2025, on the campus of Texas State University in San Marcos, TX. The Alliance invites proposals for papers, sessions, and roundtables.

The program committee, chaired by Dr. Deborah Liles, supports topics that cover all aspects of Texas history, including, but not limited to, social, economic, political, cultural, preservation, and material culture, along with topics that address Texas history generally but are aligned influences on Texas history. We hope to receive sessions that are focused on a wide area of inquiry about Texas history from teaching and curriculum, historiography, biographical, underrepresented regional communities, literature, publishing, and historical consciousness in a new century.

Submissions may be individual papers or complete sessions. Student sessions are strongly encouraged. For more information scan the QR code below or visit the website at www.atxh.org/conference.

Save the date. Watch the website for more details.

Email any questions to programs@atxh.org.

